Tokens and Purchaser's and use Rewarded Persons of the Rights to use the Platform.

32.2 The Company, its Affiliates and the Founders are not, should not and will not be liable for any delay or failure to perform any obligation under this Agreement where the delay or failure results from any cause beyond our reasonable control, including acts of God, labor disputes or other industrial disturbances, electrical, telecommunications, hardware, software or other utility failures, earthquake, storms or other elements of nature, blockages, embargoes, riots, acts or orders of government, acts of terrorism, or war, changes in blockchain technology (broadly construed), changes in the underlying blockchain or the Network, or any other force outside of our control.

32.3 Except as otherwise set forth herein, if any portion of this Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining portions of this Agreement will remain in full force and effect. Any invalid or unenforceable portions will be interpreted to affect the intent of the original portion. If such construction is not possible, the invalid or unenforceable portion will be severed from this Agreement, but the rest of the Agreement will remain in full force and effect.

32.4 Notwithstanding any other agreement between the Purchaser and the Rewarded Person Company, the security and data privacy provisions in this Agreement and in the Terms of Token Use contain the Parties and their affiliates' entire obligation regarding the security, privacy and confidentiality of the Purchaser's Personal information.

32.5 The Company and its affiliates will not be bound by, and specifically object to, any term, condition or other provision which is different from or in addition to the provisions of this Agreement and the Terms of Token Use (whether or not it would materially alter this Agreement and the Terms of Token Use) and which is submitted by the Purchaser in any order, receipt, acceptance, confirmation, correspondence or another document.

32.6 The Company, the Purchaser and the Rewarded Person are independent contractors, and neither party hereto, nor any of their respective Affiliates, is an agent of the other for any purpose somehow related to this Agreement or has the authority to bind the other.

32.7 Purchasing of or being rewarded with GPC Tokens from the Company does not create any form of partnership, joint venture or any other similar relationship between the Rewarded Persons or the Purchasers and the Company.

32.8 The original text of this Agreement is prepared in English. Albeit the Company may place a translation of the Agreement on the Webpage, the English version shall prevail if there is any conflict.

GPETEC LTD

RISK FACTORS DOCUMENT RELATING TO THE PURCHASE, SALE, REWARD, USE AND ACQUISITION OF GREENPLANETCOIN TOKENS

RISK FACTORS DOCUMENT RELATING TO THE PURCHASE, SALE, REWARD, USE AND ACQUISITION OF GREENPLANETCOIN TOKENS

THIS RISK FACTORS DOCUMENT IS SUPPLEMENTAL TO THE GREENPLANETCOIN TOKEN SALE AND REWARDING AGREEMENT TERMS AND CONDITIONS AND THE WHITE PAPER AND SHOULD BE READ ALWAYS IN CONJUNCTION WITH THEM TO WHICH CONSTITUTES AN INTERGRAL PART OF THEM.

RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The purchase or reward of tokens of whatever nature, involves a high degree of risk, including but not limited to the risks described below.

Prospective Purchasers or Rewarded Persons of GreenPlanetcoin Tokens, (referred to as "GPC Tokens") as these are defined on the Website and on the THE GREENPLANETCOIN TOKEN SALE AND REWARDING AGREEMENT TERMS AND CONDITIONS, (the "Agreement"), prior to any purchase of GPC Tokens, should carefully consider and evaluate all risks and uncertainties associated with them.

Terms used and not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings set forth in the Agreement or in the GREENPLANETCOIN White Paper (hereinafter referred to as the "White Paper") all found in the GreenPlanetcoin Website.

If any of such risks and uncertainties as defined below develop into actual events, the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of GPETEC LTD, of Larnaca, Cyprus, (The "Company") under registration number HE 391842, being the issuing company of the GPC Tokens or GPC Tokens themselves, could be materially and adversely affected. In such cases, purchasers of GPC Tokens may lose all or part of the value of GPC Tokens.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RISKS

Purchasers or Rewarded Persons of GPC Tokens, by purchasing, owning, accepting and using GPC Tokens expressly acknowledge and assume the following RISKS:

1. SECURITY RISKS

1.1. Risk of Losing Access to GPC Tokens Due to Loss of Private Key(s), Custodial Error or Purchaser Error

A private key, or a combination of private keys, is necessary to control and dispose of GPC Tokens stored in purchaser's digital wallet or vault. Accordingly, loss of requisite private key(s) associated with purchasers of GPC Tokens' digital wallet or vault storing GPC Tokens will result in loss of such GPC Tokens.

Moreover, any third party that gains access to such private key(s), including by gaining access to login credentials of a hosted wallet service purchasers of GPC Tokens use, may be able to misappropriate purchasers of GPC Tokens.

Any errors or malfunctions caused by or otherwise related to the digital wallet or vault purchasers of GPC Tokens choose to receive and store GPC Tokens in, including purchaser's own failure to properly maintain or use such digital wallet or vault, may also result in the loss of purchaser's GPC Tokens.

Additionally, purchaser's failure to follow precisely the procedures set forth for buying and receiving GPC Tokens, including, for instance, if purchasers of GPC Tokens provide the wrong address for the receiving GPC Tokens, or provide an address that is not ERC-20 compatible, may result in the loss of purchaser's GPC Tokens.

The GPC Tokens may be held by the token holder in his digital wallet or vault, which requires a private key or a combination of private keys, for access. Accordingly, loss of requisite private keys associated with such token holder's digital wallet or vault storing the GPC Tokens will result in loss of such GPC Tokens, access to token holder's Token balance and/or any initial balances in blockchains created by third parties. Moreover, any third party that gains access to such private keys, including by gaining access to login credentials of a hosted wallet or vault service the token holder uses, may be able to misappropriate the token holder's GPC Tokens.

1.2. Lack of GPC Token Security. The GPC Tokens may be subject to expropriation and or/theft. Hackers or other malicious groups or organizations may attempt to interfere with the token smart contract which creates the GPC Tokens or the GPC Tokens in a variety of ways, including, but not limited to, malware attacks, denial of service attacks, consensus-based attacks, Sybil attacks, smurfing and spoofing. Furthermore, because the Tron platform rests on open source software, there is the risk that Tron smart contracts may contain intentional or unintentional bugs or weaknesses which may negatively affect the GPC Tokens or result in the loss of GPC Tokens, the loss of ability to access or control the GPC Tokens. In the event of such a software bug or weakness, there may be no remedy and holders of the GPC Tokens are not guaranteed any remedy, refund or compensation.

1.3. Attacks on GPC Token Smart Contract. The blockchain used for the token smart contract which creates the GPC

Tokens is susceptible to mining attacks, including double-spend attacks, majority mining power attacks, "selfish-mining" attacks, and race condition attacks. Any successful attacks present a risk to the token smart contract, expected proper execution and sequencing of the Token transactions, and expected proper execution and sequencing of contract computations.

1.4. Failure to Map a Public Key to Purchaser's Account.

Failure of a purchaser of the GPC Tokens to map a public key to such purchaser's account may result in third parties being unable to recognize purchaser's Token balance on the Tron blockchain when and if they configure the initial balances of a new blockchain based upon the Platform.

1.5. Risk of Incompatible Wallet Service.

The wallet or wallet service provider used for the acquisition and storage of the GPC Tokens, has to be technically compatible with the GPC Tokens. The failure to assure this may have the result that purchaser of the GPC Tokens will not gain access to his GPC Tokens.

1.6. Risks of Theft of the Funds Raised in the GPC Token Sale.

The Company will make every effort to ensure that the funds received from the GPC Token Sale will be securely held through the implementation of security measures. Notwithstanding such security measures, there is no assurance that there will be no theft of the cryptocurrencies as a result of hacks, sophisticated cyber-attacks, distributed denials of service or errors, vulnerabilities or defects on the Website, in the smart contract(s), on the Tron or any other blockchain, or otherwise. Such events may include, for example, flaws in programming or source code leading to exploitation or abuse thereof. In such event, even if the GPC Token Sale is completed, the Company may not be able to receive the cryptocurrencies raised and to use such funds for the development of the GreenPlanetcoin Platform (the “GPC Platform”) and/or for launching any future business line. In such case, the launch of the GPC Platform might be temporarily or permanently curtailed. As such, distributed GPC Tokens may hold little worth or value, and this would impact its price.

1.7. Risks Relating to Escrow Wallet. The private keys to the escrow wallet may be compromised and the cryptocurrencies may not be able to be disbursed. The escrow wallet is designed to be secure. Each of the holders of the three (3) private keys to the escrow wallet will use all reasonable efforts to safeguard their respective keys, but in the unlikely event that any two (2) of the three (3) keys to the escrow wallet are, for any reason whatsoever, lost, destroyed or otherwise compromised, the funds held by the escrow wallet may not be able to be retrieved and disbursed, and may be permanently unrecoverable. In such event, even if the GPC Token Sale is successful, the Company will not be able to receive the funds raised and to use such funds for the development of the Platform. As such, distributed GPC Tokens may hold little worth or value, and this would impact its trading price.

1.8. Risk of Mining Attacks. As with other decentralized cryptographic GPC Tokens based on the Tron protocol, GPC Tokens are susceptible to attacks by miners in the course of validating GPC Token transactions on the Tron blockchain, including, but not limited, to double-spend attacks, majority mining power attacks, and selfish-mining attacks. Any successful attacks present a risk to GPC Tokens, including, but not limited to, accurate execution and recording of transactions involving GPC Tokens.

1.9. Risk of Hacking and Security Weaknesses. Hackers or other malicious groups or organizations may attempt to interfere with GPC Tokens in a variety of ways, including, but not limited to, malware attacks, denial of service attacks, consensus-based attacks, sybil attacks, smurfing and spoofing. Furthermore, because is based on open-source software, there is a risk that a third party or a member of the GreenPlanetcoin Team, as defined in the Terms of Sale Agreement, may intentionally or unintentionally introduce weaknesses into the core infrastructure of GreenPlanetcoin, which could negatively affect it and GPC Tokens, including the utility of GPC Tokens for obtaining rewards or discounts.

2. RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH THE TRON PROTOCOL

Because GPC Tokens are based on the Tron protocol, any malfunction, breakdown or abandonment of the Tron protocol may have a material adverse effect on the GPC Tokens. Moreover, advances in cryptography, or technical advances such as the development of quantum computing, could present risks to GPC Tokens, including the utility of GPC Tokens for obtaining rewards or discounts, by rendering ineffective the cryptographic consensus mechanism that underpins the Tron protocol.

3. RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH DEPENDENCE ON COMPUTER INFRASTRUCTURE

GPC Tokens use depend on functioning software applications, computer hardware and the Internet. This implies that the Company can offer no assurances that a system failure would not adversely affect the use of GPC Tokens. Despite the Company's implementation of all reasonable network security measures, its processing centre servers are vulnerable to computer viruses, physical or electronic break-ins or other disruptions of a similar nature. Computer viruses, break-ins or other disruptions caused by third parties may result in interruption, delay or suspension of services, which would limit the use of the GPC Tokens.

4. RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH SMART CONTRACT LIMITATIONS

Smart contract technology is still in its early stages of development, and its application is of experimental nature. This may carry significant operational, technological, regulatory, reputational and financial risks. Consequently, although the audit conducted by independent third party increases the level of security, reliability, and accuracy, this audit cannot serve as any form of warranty, including any expressed or implied warranty that the GreenPlanetcoin Smart Contract is fit for purpose or that it contains no flaws, vulnerabilities or issues which could cause technical problems or the complete loss of GPC Tokens.

5. RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH MARKETS FOR GPC TOKENS

If secondary exchange of GPC Tokens is facilitated by third party exchanges, such exchanges may be relatively new and subject to little or no regulatory oversight, making them more susceptible to fraud or manipulation. Furthermore, to the extent that third- parties do ascribe an external exchange value to GPC Tokens (e.g., as denominated in a digital or fiat currency), such value may be extremely volatile. There is no guarantee that a robust or liquid secondary market for GPC Tokens will develop.

6. RISKS ASSOCIATED LACK OF INCOME OR PROFIT GUARANTEES

The Company, cannot guarantee a specific price for GPC Tokens within any certain period of time, and is not responsible for any changes in the price of the GPC Tokens, or the failure of the GPC Tokens' price to meet customer expectations, as the GPC Tokens price depends on many unforeseen and uncontrolled circumstances.

Likewise, the Company, cannot guarantee that the purchaser will receive any income or profit due to the fact that the GPC Tokens are intended for exclusive use within the GPC Platform solely as a utility token to enable the services and features entitled exclusively to it as described there in and in related documents and beyond that it does not have any value or use.

7. RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH FORCE MAJEURE RISKS

The Company or GPC Token's performance and use may be interrupted, suspended or delayed due to force majeure circumstances. For the purposes of this Risk Factors paper, force majeure shall mean extraordinary events and circumstances which could not be prevented by the Company and shall include, amongst others: acts of nature, wars, armed conflicts, mass civil disorders, industrial actions, epidemics, lockouts, slowdowns, prolonged shortage or other failures of energy supplies or communication service, acts of municipal, state or federal governmental agencies, other circumstances beyond the Company's control, which were not in existence at the time of White Paper release.

8. RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

Personal information received from GPC Token holders, the information about the number of tokens owned, the wallet addresses used and any other relevant or Personal information may be disclosed as per the provisions of the PRIVACY POLICY STATEMENT found in the GreenPlanetcoin Website, to law enforcement units, government officials and other third parties when the Company is obliged to disclose such information by law, subpoena or court order. The Company shall at no time be held responsible for such information disclosure according to the applicable Laws.

9. RISKS ACCOSIATED WITH THE VALUE OF GPC TOKEN

9.1 No Rights, Functionality or Features Other than Strictly Provided Herein. The GPC Tokens do not have any rights, uses, purpose, attributes, functionalities or features, express or implied, including, without limitation, any uses, purpose, attributes, functionalities or features on the Platform, other than strictly provided in the White Paper.

9.2 Lack of Development of Market for GPC Tokens. Because there has been no prior public trading market for the GPC Tokens, the sale of the GPC Tokens may not result in an active or liquid market for the GPC Tokens, and their price may be highly volatile. Although applications will be made to the cryptographic token exchanges for the GPC Tokens to be admitted to trading, an active public market may not develop or be sustained after the Token sale. If a liquid trading market for the GPC Tokens does not develop, the price of the GPC Tokens may become more volatile and token holder may be unable to sell or otherwise transact in the GPC Tokens at any time.

9.3 Risks Relating to Highly Speculative Exchanged Price. The valuation of digital GPC Tokens in a secondary market is usually not transparent, and highly speculative. The GPC Tokens do not hold any ownership rights to the Company's assets and, therefore, are not backed by any tangible asset.

Exchange price of the GPC Tokens can fluctuate greatly within a short period of time. There is a high risk that a token holder could lose his/her entire contribution amount. In the worst-case scenario, the GPC Tokens could be rendered worthless.

9.4 GPC Tokens May Have No Value. The GPC Tokens may have no value and there is no guarantee or representation of liquidity for the GPC Tokens. The Company is not and shall not be responsible for or liable for the market value of the GPC Tokens, the transferability and/or liquidity of the GPC Tokens and/or the availability of any market for the GPC Tokens through third parties or otherwise.

Once purchased, the value of GPC Token may significantly fluctuate due to various reasons such as, but not limited to, the issuers' performance, success/ failure of business plans, commodity prices, foreign exchange market, stock market, other market trends, natural disasters, wars, political upheavals, changes in regulations, other cryptocurrencies, and unforeseeable events.

Especially with regards to token issuers, things do not always go according to the original business plan and there is a possibility for the GPC Tokens held by clients to significantly decrease in value from the original purchasing price, or for such GPC Tokens to lose value all together.

The purchase of GPC Token can even lead to a total loss.

The Company does not guarantee any specific value of the GPC Token over any specific period of time. The Company shall not be held responsible for any change in the value of GPC Token.

There is no guarantee that users can acquire sufficient GPC Tokens for their usage within the GreenPlanetcoin Ecosystem and neither is there a guarantee that users can cash out their GPC Token via external platforms or otherwise.

Furthermore, every GPC Token holder naturally carries the risk of volatile exchange rate fluctuations of the GreenPlanetcoin towards both other cryptocurrencies and Fiat money exchange rates.

9.5 GPC Tokens are Non-Refundable. Except for the cases strictly provided by the applicable legislation or in the legally binding documentation on the GPC Tokens sale, the Company Affiliates are not obliged to provide the Token holders with a refund related to the GPC Tokens for any reason, and the Token holders will not receive money or other compensation in lieu of the refund. No promises of future performance or price are or will be made in respect to the GPC Tokens, including no promise of inherent value, no promise of continuing payments, and no guarantee that the GPC Tokens will hold any particular value. Therefore, the recovery of spent resources may be impossible or may be subject to foreign laws or regulations, which may not be the same as the private law of the GPC Token holder.

9.6 Risks of Negative Publicity. Negative publicity involving the Company, the GPC Platform, the GPC Tokens or any of the Company's Parties may materially and adversely affect the market perception or market price of the GPC Tokens, whether or not it is justified.

9.7 Use of GPC Tokens in Restricted Activities by Third Parties. Programs or websites banned or restricted in certain jurisdictions, such as gambling, betting, lottery, sweepstake, pornography and otherwise, could accept different crypto-currencies or GPC Tokens in their operation. The regulatory authorities of certain jurisdictions could accordingly take administrative or judicial actions against the such programs or websites or even the developers or users thereof. The Company neither intends nor is able to act as a censor to scrutinize to any extent any program or website that uses GPC Tokens with such goals. Therefore, any punishment, penalty, sanction, crackdown or other regulatory effort made by any governmental authority may more or less frighten or deter existing or potential users away from using and holding the GPC Tokens, and consequently bring material adverse impact on the prospect of the GPC Tokens.

10. RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH BLOCKCHAIN AND SOFTWARE

10.1 Blockchain Delay Risk. On the most blockchains used for cryptocurrencies' transactions (e.g., Ethereum, Bitcoin blockchains), timing of block production is determined by proof of work so block production can occur at random times. For example, the cryptocurrency sent as a payment for the GPC Tokens in the final seconds of the Token sale may not get included into that period. The respective blockchain may not include the purchaser's transaction at the time the purchaser expects and the payment for the GPC Tokens may reach the intended wallet address not in the same day the purchaser sends the cryptocurrency.

10.2 Blockchain Congestion Risk. The most blockchains used for cryptocurrencies' transactions (e.g., Tron, Ethereum, Bitcoin blockchains) are prone to periodic congestion during which transactions can be delayed or lost. Individuals may also intentionally spam the network in an attempt to gain an advantage in purchasing cryptographic GPC Tokens. That may result in a situation where block producers may not include the purchaser's transaction when the purchaser wants or the purchaser's transaction may not be included at all.

10.3 Risk of Software Weaknesses. The token smart contract concept, the underlying software application and software platform (i.e. the Tron, Ethereum, Bitcoin blockchains) are still in an early development stage and unproven. There are no representations and warranties that the process for creating the GPC Tokens will be uninterrupted or error-free. There is an inherent risk that the software could contain weaknesses, vulnerabilities or bugs causing, inter alia, the complete loss of the cryptocurrency and/or the GPC Tokens.

10.4 Risk of New Technology. The Platform, the GPC Tokens and all of the matters set forth in the White Paper are new and untested. The Platform and the GPC Tokens might not be capable of completion, creation, implementation or adoption. It is possible that no blockchain utilizing the Platform will be ever launched. Purchaser of the GPC Tokens should not rely on the Platform, the token smart contract or the ability to receive the GPC Tokens associated with the Platform in the future. Even if the Platform is completed, implemented and adopted, it might not function as intended, and any GPC Tokens may not have functionality that is desirable or valuable. Also, technology is changing rapidly, so the Platform and the GPC Tokens may become outdated.

11. RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH BITCOIN AND TRON VOLATILITY

The GPC Token may be significantly influenced by digital currency market trends and the GreenPlanetcoin value may be severely depreciated due to non-GreenPlanetcoin related events in the digital currency markets. Cryptocurrencies exchange rate volatility may impact the Company's ability to provide services at the indicated prices. Assumptions with respect to the foregoing involve, among other things, judgments about the future economic, competitive and market conditions and business decisions, most of which are beyond the control of the GreenPlanetcoin Team and are therefore difficult or impossible to accurately predict.

12. RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH THE ICO MARKET

The market of initial coin offerings is new. There is a risk that the market of initial coin offerings will not sustain its current growth rate and will instead decrease in the future.

13. RISKS RELATING TO THE GPC PLATFORM DEVELOPMENT

13.1 Risk Related to Reliance on Third Parties. Even if completed, the GPC Platform will rely, in whole or partly, on third parties to adopt and implement it and to continue to develop, supply, and otherwise support it. There is no assurance or guarantee that those third parties will complete their work, properly carry out their obligations, or otherwise meet anyone's needs, all of which might have a material adverse effect on the GPC Platform.

13.2 Dependence of GPC Platform on Senior Management Team. Ability of the senior management team which is responsible for maintaining competitive position of the GPC Platform is dependent to a large degree on the services of each member of that team. The loss or diminution in the services of members of respective senior management team or an inability to attract, retain and maintain additional senior management Personnel could have a material adverse effect on the GPC Platform. Competition for Personnel with relevant expertise is intense due to the small number of qualified individuals, and this situation seriously affects the ability to retain its existing senior management and attract additional qualified senior management Personnel, which could have a significant adverse impact on the GPC Platform.

13.3 Dependence of GPC Platform on Various Factors. The development of the GPC Platform may be abandoned for a number of reasons, including lack of interest from the public, lack of funding, lack of commercial success or prospects, or departure of key Personnel.

13.4 Lack of Interest to the GPC Platform. Even if the GPC Platform is finished and adopted and launched, the ongoing success of the GPC Platform relies on the interest and participation of third parties like developers. There can be no assurance or guarantee that there will be sufficient interest or participation in the GPC Platform.

13.5 Changes to the GPC Platform. The GPC Platform is still under development and may undergo significant changes over time. Although the project management team intends for the GPC Platform to have the features and specifications set forth in the White Paper, changes to such features and specifications can be made for any number of reasons, any of which may mean that the GPC Platform does not meet expectations of holder of the GPC Tokens.

13.6 Ability to Introduce New Technologies. The block chain technologies industry is characterized by rapid technological change and the frequent introduction of new products, product enhancements and new distribution methods, each of which can decrease demand for current solutions or render them obsolete.

13.7 Risk Associated with Other Applications. The GPC Platform may give rise to other, alternative projects, promoted by unaffiliated third parties, under which the Token will have no intrinsic value.

13.8 Risk of an Unfavourable Fluctuation of Cryptocurrency Value. The proceeds of the sale of the GPC Tokens will be denominated in cryptocurrency, and may be converted into other cryptographic and fiat currencies. If the value of cryptocurrencies fluctuates unfavourably during or after the Token sale, the project management team may not be able to fund development, or may not be able to develop or maintain the GPC Platform in the manner that it intended.

13.9 Risk of Dissolution / Liquidation of the Company or GPC Platform. It is possible that, due to a number of reasons, including, but not limited to, an unfavourable fluctuation in the value of Ethereum, Bitcoin or other cryptographic and fiat currencies, decrease in the GPC Tokens utility due to negative adoption of the GPC Platform, the failure of commercial relationships, or intellectual property ownership challenges, the GPC Platform may no longer be viable to operate and will stop its operation and the Company may be dissolved or liquidated.

13.10 Risk of a lack of interest in the GPC Platform or distributed applications. There is a possibility that the GPC

Platform may not be used by a large number of companies, individuals and other organizations, and that there may be limited public interest in the creation and development of distributed applications. Such a lack of interest could impact on the development of the GPC Platform and, therefore, on the uses or potential value of GPC Tokens.

13.11 Risk that the GPC Platform is not developed. Among the main rights associated with GPC Tokens are the rights to receive rewards and or discounts for using the GPC Platform under certain conditions and or advertise and or promote products and or sell / purchase of products associated with specific actions on the GPC Platform using the GPC Token. The value of the GPC tokens is therefore heavily correlated with the existence of such GPC Platform, which has not yet been implemented. GPC Tokens may lose part or all of their value if the GPC Platform is never fully developed.

13.12 Risk that the GPC Platform, as developed, does not meet purchaser expectations. The GPC Platform is currently under development and may undergo significant redesign prior to its launch. For a number of reasons, not all Purchaser expectations concerning the GPC Platform or GPC Tokens' form and function may be met on the launch date, including changes in design, implementation and execution of the GPC Platform.

13.13 Risk of competing with other platforms. It is possible that alternative platforms could be established that utilize the same open source code and protocol underlying the GPC Platform and attempt to facilitate services that are materially similar to the services provided by GreenPlanetcoin. This could materially affect the market share of GPC platform, which, in turn, limits the utility of GPC Tokens.

13.14 Risk associated with GPC Platform deployment delays

It is possible that the GPC Platform will be deployed later than anticipated due to various factors. Until the GPC Platform has been deployed and has clients, GPC Tokens will not have a utility or be effective or any other use.

14. RISKS OF ICO MARKET USING ETHEREUM

GPC Tokens are valid in respect of ICOs using Ethereum. To the extent the ICO market migrates away from Ethereum as the predominant ICO platform, GPC Tokens, and the rewards or discounts or use associated therewith, may have fewer applications. Although GPC Tokens do not expire, if ICOs cease to use Ethereum altogether, GPC Tokens will be hosted on another protocol.

15. RISK ASSOCIATED WITH GPC TOKEN MARKET SHARE

GPC Token may lose market share due to, among other things, competition, poor management, ineffective marketing, and/or in the event the GPC Token does not appeal to customers and businesses, suffers security breaches, or is defective.

16. RISK OF UNINSURED LOSSES

GPC Tokens are uninsured unless purchasers of GPC Tokens specifically obtain private insurance to insure them. Thus, in the event of loss or loss of utility value, there is no public insurer or private insurance arranged by the Company, to offer recourse to purchasers of GPC Tokens.

17. RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH CROWDSALE

GPC Tokens are not investment products but rather serve as the means to access and use the GPC Platform. Without GPC Tokens, the general public or businesses may not access the GPC Platform.

There is also no expectation or promise or guarantee whatever of future profit or gain from the acquisition or use or exchange of GPC Tokens due to their utility nature.

For these and other reasons, the Company believes that the sale of GPC Tokens does not constitute a public offering of securities subject to prospectus registration requirements.

However, public policy towards token sales is changing, and regulators may seek to broaden the scope of token sale regulations. This could make token sales including GPC Tokens sales subject to registration requirements in jurisdictions willing to regulate or already regulating such token sales such as the U.S., Canada, Malta, Singapore, China, North and South Korea and similar jurisdictions on which jurisdictions and subjects the sale of GPC Tokens is prohibited and banned as indicated in the Agreement, the Restricted Territories.

If the sale of GPC Tokens becomes subject to registration requirements, this could delay or potentially postpone the proposed crowd sale until compliance in that jurisdiction or otherwise or indefinitely.

18. RISKS ARISING FROM TAXATION

The tax characterization of GPC Tokens and its treatment is uncertain. Purchasers or Rewarded Persons of GPC Tokens must seek their own tax or VAT (Value Added Tax), advice in connection with purchasing or being rewarded of GPC Tokens, which may result in adverse tax or VAT consequences to Purchasers or Rewarded Persons of GPC Tokens, including withholding taxes, income taxes, VAT taxes and tax / VAT reporting requirements.

Purchasers or Rewarded Persons will be liable for any VAT liabilities might incur in any jurisdiction as a result of the rewards of GPC Tokens rewarded to them by the Company and they should take relevant measures to meet such obligations if any.

19. RISK ASSOCIATED WITH “KNOW YOUR CLIENT” (KYC)

The Company reserves the right to conduct a “know your client” (KYC) assessment on all purchasers of GPC Tokens or users of the GPC Platform. Such KYC assessment may be conducted prior or following the receipt of funds / tokens from purchasers of GPC Tokens. In the event KYC assessment is not satisfied (as determined by the Company, in its sole discretion), or the purchaser does not pass the Registration and Verification process, the Company may return any such funds and refuse to issue GPC Tokens as this analytically is identified in the Agreement.

In such cases purchasers of GPC Tokens will not be compensated for any loss of use of such funds during the period beginning with such payment until so returned.

20. RISKS RELATING TO THE COMPANY

20.1 Risks arising from lack of control. Because GPC Tokens confer no control or governance rights of any kind with respect to the GPC Platform or the Company itself, all decisions involving the Company or the Services or the use of the GPC Token or the GPC Platform, will be made by the Company at its sole discretion. These decisions might adversely affect the GPC Platform and GPC Tokens in all their features.

20.2 Risks relating to Ineffective Management. The Company and Company Affiliates may be materially and adversely affected if they fail to effectively manage their operations as their business develops and evolves, which would have a direct impact on the Company's ability to maintain the GPC Platform and/or launch any future business lines.

20.3 Risks Related to Highly Competitive Environment. The financial technology and cryptocurrency industries and the markets in which the Company competes are highly competitive and have grown rapidly over the past years and continue to evolve in response to new technological advances, changing business models and other factors. As a result of this constantly changing environment, the Company may face operational difficulties in adjusting to the changes, and the sustainability of the Company will depend on its ability to manage its operations and ensure that it hires qualified and competent employees, and provides proper training for its Personnel. As its business evolves, the Company must also expand and adapt its operational infrastructure. The Company cannot give any assurance that the Company will be able to compete successfully.

20.4 Risks Relating to General Global Market and Economic Conditions. Challenging economic conditions worldwide have from time to time may continue to contribute to slowdowns in the information technology industry at large. Weakness in the economy could have a negative effect on the Company's business, operations and financial condition, including decreases in revenue and operating cash flows, and inability to attract future equity and/or debt financing on commercially reasonable terms. Additionally, in a down-cycle economic environment, the Company may experience the negative effects of a slowdown in trading and usage of the GPC Platform.

20.5 Risks of Non-Protection of Intellectual Property Rights.

The Company relies on software, patents and trademarks and unpatented proprietary know-how and trade secrets and employ commercially reasonable methods, including confidentiality agreements with employees and consultants, to protect know-how and trade secrets. However, these methods may not afford complete protection and the Company cannot give any assurance that third parties will not independently develop the software or the know-how and trade secrets or develop better production methods than the Company.

20.6 Risks of Infringement Claims. The competitors of the Company, other entities and individuals, may own or claim to own intellectual property relating to Services and solutions of the Company. Third parties may claim that the Services and solutions and underlying technology of the Company infringe or violate their intellectual property rights. The Company may be unaware of the intellectual property rights that others may claim cover some or all of the Services or technology of the Company.

21. GOVERNMENTAL RISKS

21.1 Risks Associated with Uncertain Regulations and Enforcement Actions. The regulatory status of GPC Tokens, distributed ledger technology and initial coin offerings is unclear or unsettled in many jurisdictions.

It is difficult to predict how or whether regulatory agencies may apply existing regulation with respect to such technology and its applications, including GPC Tokens.

It is likewise difficult to predict how or whether legislatures or regulatory agencies may implement changes to law and regulation affecting distributed ledger technology and its applications, including GPC Tokens. Regulatory actions could negatively impact GPC Tokens in various ways, including, for purposes of illustration only, through a determination that the purchase, sale and delivery of GPC Tokens constitutes unlawful activity or that GPC Tokens are a regulated instrument that require registration or licensing of those instruments or some or all of the parties involved in the purchase, sale and delivery thereof.

The Company, despite the purely utility nature of its GPC Token, may cease operations in a jurisdiction in the event that regulatory actions, or changes to Law or regulation, make it illegal to operate in such jurisdiction, or commercially undesirable to obtain the necessary regulatory approvals to operate in such jurisdiction.

21.2 Failure to Obtain, Maintain or Renew Licenses and Permits. Although as of the date of starting of the GPC Token sale there are no statutory requirements obliging the Company to receive any licenses and permits necessary for carrying out of its activity, there is the risk that such statutory requirements may be adopted in the future and may relate to any of the Company Affiliates as well. In this case, the Company business will depend on the continuing validity of such licenses and permits and its compliance with their terms. Regulatory authorities will exercise considerable discretion in the timing of license issuance and renewal and the monitoring of licensees' compliance with license terms. Requirements which may be imposed by these authorities and which may require the Company or any of the Company Affiliates to comply with numerous standards, recruit qualified personnel, maintain necessary technical equipment and quality control systems, monitor our operations, maintain appropriate filings and, upon request, submit appropriate information to the licensing authorities, may be costly and time-consuming and may result in delays in the commencement or continuation of operation of the GPC Platform. Further, private individuals and the public at large possess rights to comment on and otherwise engage in the licensing process, including through intervention in courts and political pressure. Accordingly, the licenses the Company or any of the Company Affiliates may need, may not be issued or renewed, or if issued or renewed, may not be issued or renewed in a timely fashion, or may involve requirements which restrict the Company's or any of its Affiliates' ability to conduct its operations or to do so profitably.

21.3 Risk of Government Action. The industry in which the Company or its Affiliates operate is new, and may be subject to heightened oversight and scrutiny, including investigations or enforcement actions. There can be no assurance that governmental authorities will not examine the operations of the Company or its Affiliates and/or pursue enforcement actions against them. This may subject the Company and its Affiliates to judgments, settlements, fines or penalties, or cause the Company and its Affiliates to restructure their operations and activities or to cease offering certain Services, all of which could harm the Company's and its Affiliates' reputation or lead to higher operational costs, which may in turn have a material adverse effect on the GPC Tokens and/or the development of the GPC Platform.

21.4 Risk of Burdensomeness of Applicable Laws, Regulations and Standards. Failure to comply with existing Laws and regulations or the findings of government inspections, or increased governmental regulation of the Company and its Affiliates' operations, could result in substantial additional compliance costs or various sanctions, which could materially adversely affect the Company and its Affiliates business and the GPC Platform. The Company Affiliates' operations and properties are subject to regulation by various government entities and agencies, in connection with ongoing compliance with existing Laws, regulations and standards. Regulatory authorities exercise considerable discretion in matters of enforcement and interpretation of applicable Laws, regulations and standards. Respective authorities have the right to, and frequently do, conduct periodic inspections of any Company Affiliates' operations and properties throughout the year. Any such future inspections may conclude that the Company and any Company Affiliates has violated Laws, decrees or regulations, and it may be unable to refute such conclusions or remedy the violations. Any Company's and Affiliates' failure to comply with existing Laws and regulations or the findings of government inspections may result in the imposition of fines or penalties or more severe sanctions or in requirements that respective Company and its Affiliates cease certain of its business activities, or in criminal and administrative penalties applicable to respective officers. Any such decisions, requirements or sanctions, or any increase in governmental regulation of respective operations, could increase the Company's and its Affiliates' costs and materially adversely affect the Company and its Affiliates business and the GPC Platform.

21.5 Unlawful or Arbitrary Government Action. Governmental authorities may have a high degree of discretion and, at times, act selectively or arbitrarily, without hearing or prior notice, and sometimes in a manner that is contrary a law or influenced by political or commercial considerations. Moreover, the government also has the power in certain circumstances, by regulation or government act, to interfere with the performance of, nullify or terminate contracts. Unlawful, selective or arbitrary governmental actions have reportedly included the denial or withdrawal of licenses, sudden and unexpected tax audits, criminal prosecutions and civil actions. Federal and local government entities have also used common defects in matters surrounding the GPC Token sale as pretexts for court claims and other demands to invalidate or to void any related transaction, often for political purposes. In this environment, the Company and its Affiliates' competitors may receive preferential treatment from the government, potentially giving them a competitive advantage over the Company and its Affiliates.

22. UNANTICIPATED RISKS

Cryptographic tokens such as GPC Tokens are a new and untested technology. In addition to the risks included in this list of Legal / Risk Factors, there are other risks associated with purchase, possession and use of GPC Tokens, indicated as unanticipated risks. Such risks may further materialize as unanticipated variations or combinations of the risks discussed in this list of GreenPlanetcoin Legal / Risk Factors.
